Then say.....

"Next time, I will...."

or

"I'm sorry."

Say to yourself, "I messed up."

Say to yourself, "I have to accept the consequences."

It is the responsible thing to do.

Say to other person, "I did"

Grades 1-3: Accepting Consequences
Choose a good time.

Ask the question.

Decide what needs to be asked.

Decide who to ask.

Decide what to say.

Grades 1-3: Asking a Question
Wait. Say to yourself, "I know I can wait without talking."

Ask yourself if you can do this alone.

Can I do this alone?

Ask for help in a friendly way.

If not, raise your hand.
Grades 1-3: Completing Assignments

- Turn in when finished.
- Ask yourself if your work is finished.
- Say to yourself, "Good for me! I finished it."
- Look over each question.
Raise your hand.

When called, on say what you want to say using kind words.

Ask yourself, "Is this related to the discussion?"

Decide if you have something to say.

Decide what you want to say.

Grades 1-3: Contributing to Classroom Discussions
Repeat instructions.

Listen to instructions.

Follow instructions.

Ask questions if you don’t understand.

Grades 1-3: Following Instructions
Continue to work.

Count to five.

Say to yourself, "Good for me, I did it."

Say to yourself, "I won't look. I'll keep working."
Grades 1-3: Listening

1. Stay still while waiting.
2. If you hear something, but you don't understand, nod your head.
3. Or say "Mm-hmm." Look at the person talking.
4. Think about it.
Write in the new answer. Look at first correction.

Say to yourself, "Good. That one is done." Try to answer the question.

Go onto next correction. Ask someone if you don't understand.