Grades 4-5: Accepting Consequences

"I'm sorry."

"Next time, I will..."

or

Say to another person, "I did...

think to do." responsible it is the consequences. accept the I have to yourself, say to.

Say to yourself, "I was wrong."

Then say,
Kind words. Ask for help using

Wait without talking.

If not, raise your hand.

Can I do this alone?

Say to yourself, "I need help."

Grades 4-5: Asking for Help
Check and pack them up.

Gather the materials together.

Ask "Do I have everything I need?"

Ask "What do I need for this class?"

Grades 4-5: Bringing Materials to Class
Grades 4-5: Completing Assignments

- Turn in when finished.
- Ask yourself, "Is my work finished?"
- Say to yourself, "Good for me! I finished it!"
- Look over each question.
Grades 4-5: Contributing to Classroom Discussions

1. Decide what you want to say using kind words.
2. Raise your hand.
3. Decide if you have something to say.
4. Ask yourself, "Is this related to the discussion?"
5. When called on, say what you want to say.
Follow Instructions.

Repeat instructions to speaker or self.

Ask questions if you don't understand.

Listen to instructions.

Grades 4-5: Following Instructions
Continue to work.

Count to five.

Say to yourself, "Good for me. I did it."

Say to yourself, "I won't look. I'll keep working."
Grades 4-5: Listening

- Nod your head.
  - or
  - Say "Mm-hmm"
- Look at the person talking.
- Stay still while waiting.
- Think about what they are saying.
Write in the new answer.

Look at first correction.

Try to answer the question.

Say to yourself, "Good. That one is done."

Ask someone if you don't understand.

Go onto next correction.

Grades 4-5: Making Corrections