

Changes to the MPS 2018–19 School Calendar

Students in Grades K–8 on the Traditional Calendar

To accommodate for six school days that were cancelled due to extreme winter weather, MPS is modifying the calendar for the remainder of the 2018–19 school year to ensure that all students receive the number of instructional hours required by the Wisconsin Department of Public Instruction.

Beginning Monday, February 25, 2019, five additional instructional minutes will be added to each school day.

Changes to the calendar are below. Please contact your school for any specific questions.
